

Ship Arrest after The Alkyon: Is Counter-Security just over the horizon?

In The Alkyon, the Court of Appeal recently recommended that the views of the maritime community be obtained on the question whether counter-security should be posted upon a ship arrest.

In order that the opposing views can be heard, the Admiralty Bar Group is pleased to invite you to a Debate.

For counter-security: The Hon. Sir Bernard Eder

Against counter-security: Robert Bright QC.

This is an important chance for market sentiment to be gauged before any rule changes are recommended by the Admiralty Court Users' Committee, and we therefore urge you to attend.

Details: 6 pm on 7th March 2019 at the IDRC 70 Fleet St., London, EC4Y 1EU for 6.30 pm start.
